Fly Fishing with Anglers of Honor

Almost all of our participants today are new to fly fishing. Our focus will be on instruction—the Trout are a bonus. Everyone is taught the fundamentals before heading to the stream and ponds. The guides at Lincolns Hill are the best and always go above and beyond to ensure everyone has a great time. After a morning of fishing, we gather on the deck of the eco-center for a great lunch and some fish stories. Our hope is that all who participated today will continue to Fly Fish as a way to help the healing process. A big thanks to all the guides and volunteers for a fun day!
